GEPT & BESTEP

Reliable English Proficiency Tests Perfect for University Admissions

Enhance your admissions process with the GEPT and BESTEP now! The majority of students in Taiwan rely on the General English Proficiency Test (GEPT) and the BEST Test of English Proficiency (BESTEP) for academic admissions. Both tests were developed and are administered by the Language Training and Testing Center (LTTC) in Taiwan and are accepted by top universities all over the world. Both the GEPT and BESTEP received government support and funding throughout their development and offer reliable evaluations to meet the needs of admissions offices everywhere.

Why Choose the GEPT and BESTEP for University Admissions?

Both provide highly accurate measures of English proficiency

- Offer a clear assessment of students' English language ability.
- Have been validated by extensive research. View related papers and studies via the QR code on the right.

Both are comprehensive

- Cover all essential language skills.
- Align with CEFR standards, ensuring international compatibility.

Both are widely accepted

- Among the most popular English language proficiency tests in Taiwan.
- Recognized by schools, universities, private companies, and professional bodies worldwide.

GEPT® General English Proficiency Test

- Launched by the LTTC in 2000.
- Taken by more than 9 million people to date.
- Corresponds to Taiwan's English education framework.
- Accepted by more than 80 universities worldwide.

BESTEP BEST Test of English Proficiency

- Launched by the LTTC in 2023.
- Enhances English for Academic Purposes (EAP) and communication skills.
- Encourages the positive interactions of assessment, teaching, and learning.
- Gaining increased recognition locally and globally.

The LTTC has always been highly regarded for its cutting-edge innovation in advancing English education and elevating the standard of English in Taiwan. It does so through its high-quality assessment services including the GEPT and BESTEP, and facilitation of exchanges with global partners and educational institutions. In this way, the LTTC has not only greatly benefited learners in Taiwan, but also played a pivotal role in fostering the internationalization of higher education.
